RECOVERED

Cst. Cam KAMIYA of the Mission RCMP Community Response Unit recovered a Sea Doo RXP that had been stripped of the engine and dumped in a secluded waterway in the Mission area. Cst Kamiya contacted Bombardier and traced the Sea Doo to the original owner but was unable to obtain any details from the subject. On November 10 2009, Cst Kamiya's investigation lead him to the Stolen Boats Canada web page where he was able to identify the recovered craft as being stolen from Surrey in August of 2008.
